

Lost Passbook Affidavit

State of Ohio
County of Hamilton

Now comes, _____, the affiant, who after begin first duly cautioned and sworn, disposes and states the following:

Whereas Cincinnati Federal issued to the undersigned, its savings account number _____, as shown by the books of the institution, and whereas the account book, investment certificate or other evidence of said account has been lost or destroyed and the undersigned desires to obtain a duplicate, therefore, the undersigned hereby makes this affidavit to induce said institution to issue such duplicate evidence and makes oath that (1) said account was issued to the undersigned and is still owned by the undersigned (2) said account or evidence thereof has never been pledged or sold or transferred by the undersigned and is not subject to any kind of lien or claim of any other entity, and (3) affiant further says that the evidence of the said account has been lost or destroyed and after diligent search cannot be located.

Wherefore, in consideration of the issuance of the duplicate evidence of the account, the undersigned hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the institution harmless against any loss, damage and expense on account of the issuance of such duplicate evidence, or on account of any claim of any other to or upon said account, and the undersigned further agrees that in the event of the discovery of the said original evidence to promptly deliver the same to the institution.

This the _____ day of _____, 20_____

Signature of Account Owner

Signature of Account Owner

State of _____

County of _____

Sworn to and subscribed before me a Notary Public in and for said county and state this _____ day of _____, 20___ by _____ and _____.

My commission expires: _____

Printed Notary Name: _____

(seal)

Signed Notary Name: _____

Keep original in Closed Account File